Real Weddings

What inspires you?

One thing we've learned is that couples are most inspired by other couples. That's why, every year, we gather dozens of real weddings, put on by couples with local ties, that have taken place in and around Nashville. Our hope is that they plant a few new ideas in your head—and help as you plan out your own perfect day.

"My two sisters were my only official attendants, but during the ceremony, we had our minister ask all our friends who had supported us over the years to come forward and stand with us in a prayer. It was such a special moment to be surrounded by all of our friends, helping to bless and pray over this marriage."
